

HOW ROCKETS WORK

Rockets are tall, thin machines that can be sent into space.

120m

100m

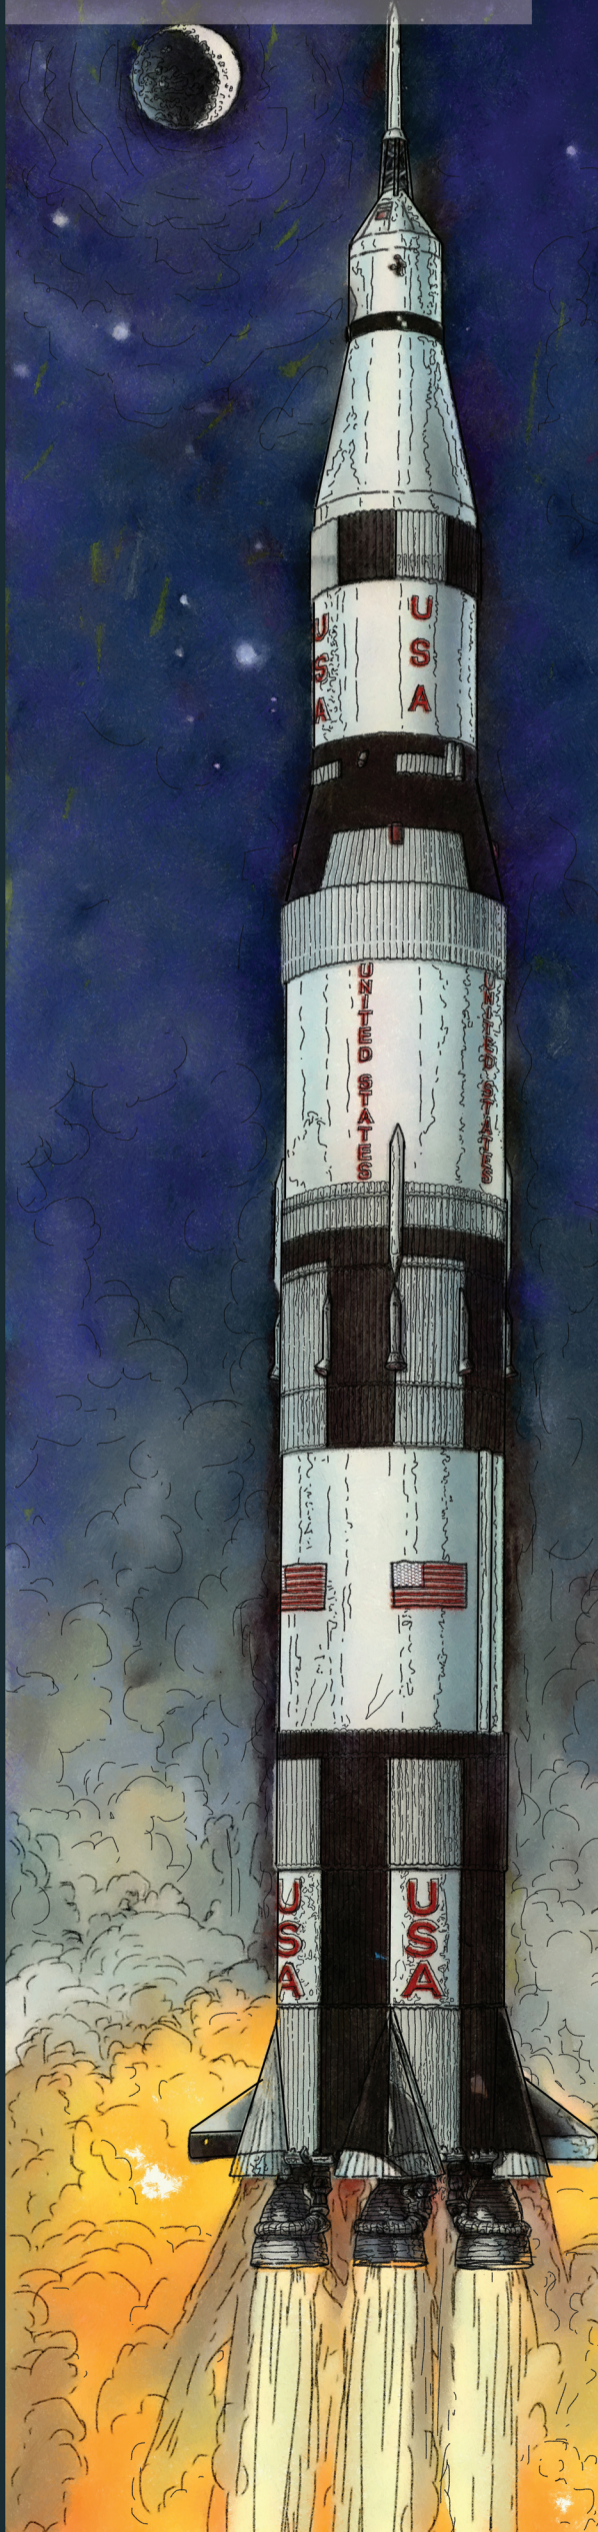

80m

60m

40m

20m

0m

Escape Rocket

Command Module

Carries three Astronauts around the Moon

Lunar Module

Carries two Astronauts from orbit to the surface of the Moon and back

Fuel

Fuel

Rocket Engines

Shell Structure

Fuel

Fins

Gas

Gas gets pushed out of the bottom of the rocket making it go up.

